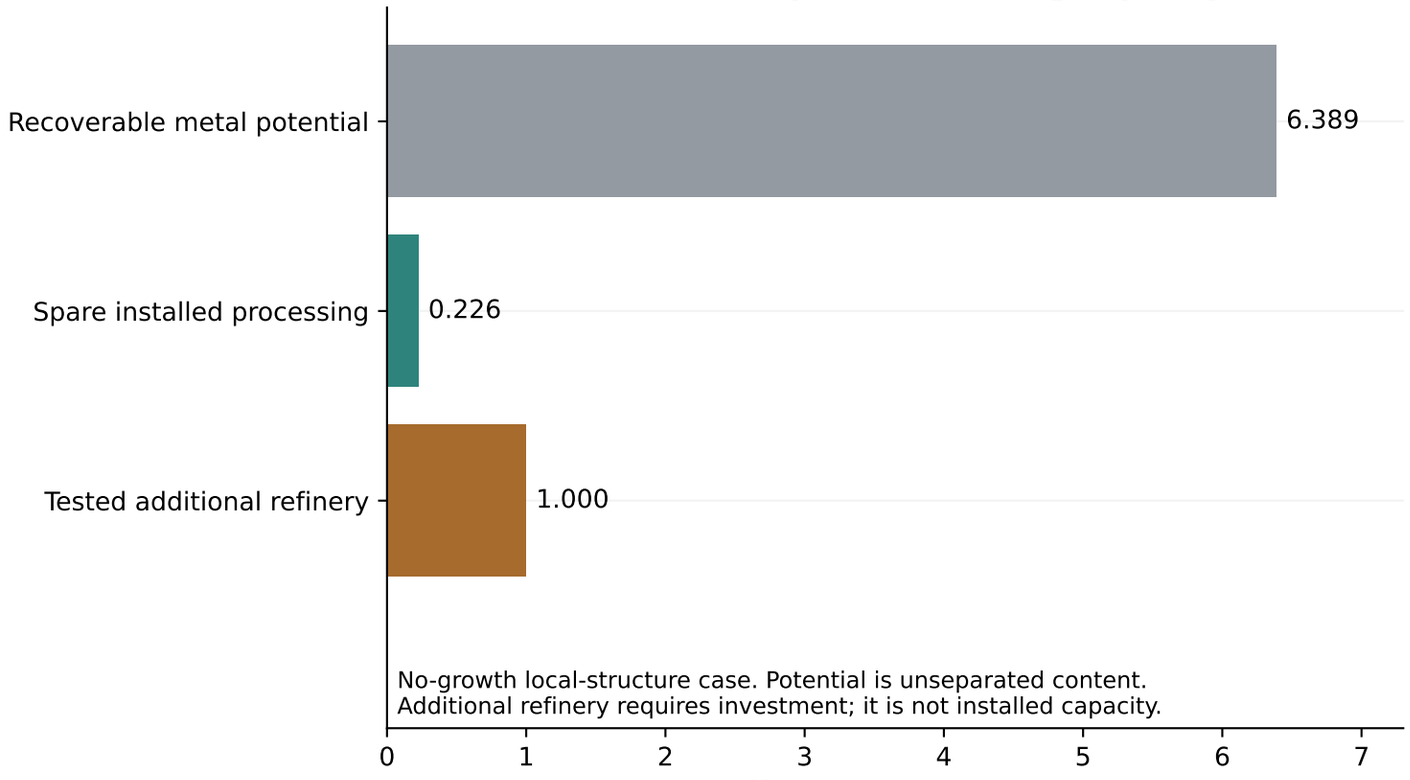
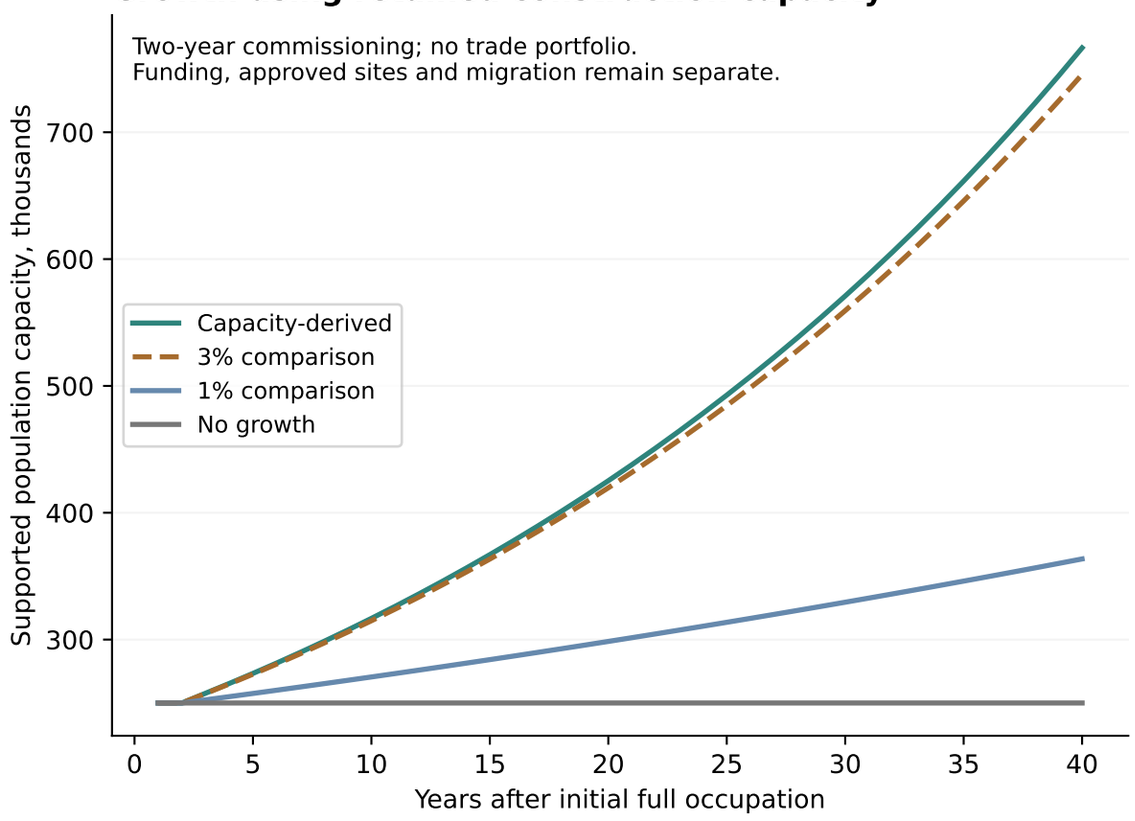
Founding economy: co-products, trade and capacity-supported growth

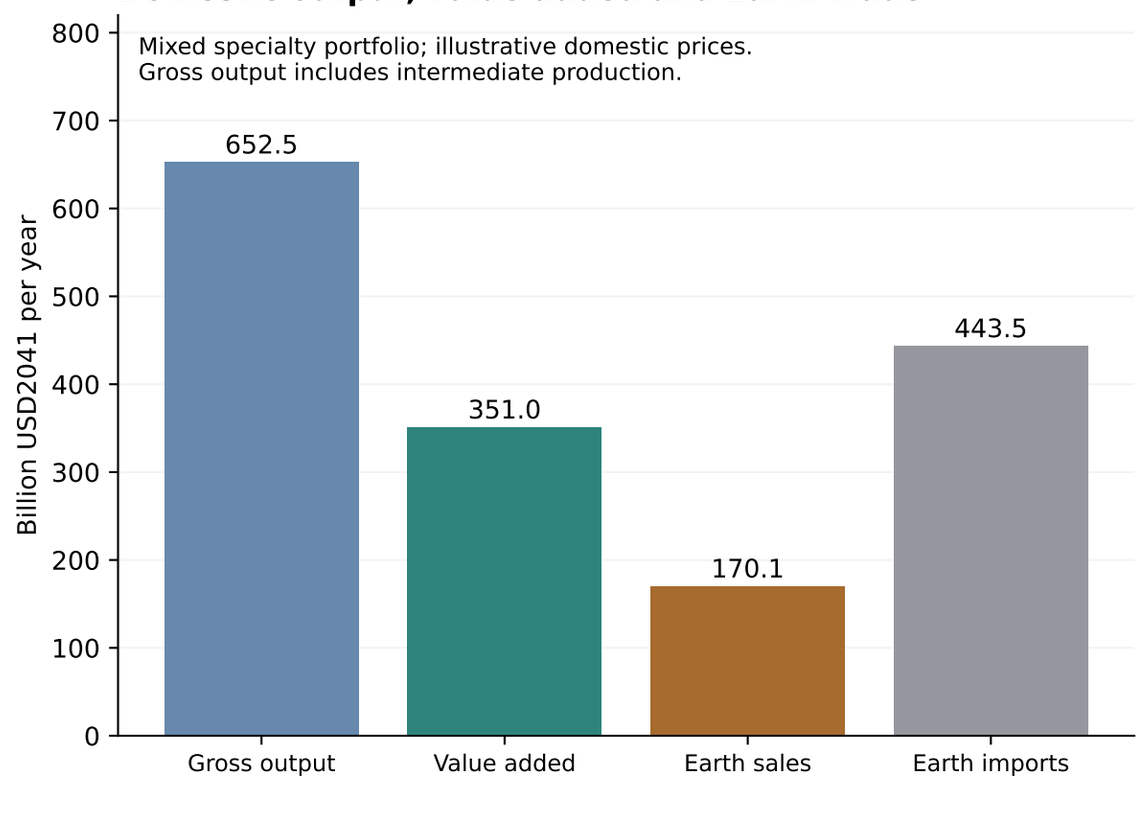
Metal content exceeds present refining capacity



Earth cash depends on products and buyers

Growth using retained construction capacity





Domestic output, value added and Earth trade